CIO Update - Doing What MATTERS for Jobs and the Economy

The Doing What MATTERS for Jobs and the Economy framework introduces a statewide and regional delivery system to support regional economies and economic sector priorities. The CIOs have a significant role in the implementation and success of this initiative. To prepare CIOs with the new administrative and policy changes in economic and workforce development, and to increase awareness of the regional impact of the Doing What MATTERS for Jobs and the Economy initiative, the CCCCCO is holding a webinar with CIOs to answer questions and discuss processes.

Invitation to a webinar on Doing What MATTERS for Jobs and the Economy:

- CCCCCO Vice Chancellor Barry Russell will be hosting Vice Chancellor Van Ton-Quinlivan and Dean Cris McCullough (from the CCCCCO Workforce & Economic Development Division) for a CIO-only webinar on May 3rd from 2:00 pm - 2:30 pm and May 22nd at 4:00 pm - 4:30 pm. Please participate on the date that works best for you. The call-in information is below.
- Questions for the webinar can be sent in advance to Cris McCullough at cmccullough@ccccc.edu
- If you are organizing a future gathering of CIOs, please consider inviting us for a longer in-person discussion by sending an invitation to Cris McCullough with the date and time.

We look forward to working with you to further student success.
